Har Ki Dun

Region: Uttarakhand | Grade: Moderate | Max. Altitude: 11,420 ft | Duration: 08 days (Dehradun to Dehradun)

Har ki Dun, which means Valley of Gods, is situated deep inside GovindPashu National park. Rich in flora and fauna, the trails are quite often covered in different shades of orchids and other wildflowers. The area was made popular by the Doon school master Jack Gibson after his Banderpunch expeditions.

The path winds up alongside the Tons river from Netwar village. The trek is along the Supin river through the scenic Garhwali villages of Taluka, Gangad and Osla. Har ki dun has numerous camping places and one Forest Guest House. An extra rest day is ideal to explore several trails that continue from the Har ki Dun camp.

From Har ki Dun one can see the entire North Face of Swargarohini I (6,252 m) peak. This face drops to about 2,000 m in less than 2 km distance and is yet to be climbed. The legends associated with it say that Swargarohini is the path to heaven that was followed by Pandavas of the epic Mahabharata. Though, the same story is also associated with the Swargarohini steps seen from Satopanth Lake, which lies ahead of Badrinath.

Region: Garhwal, Uttarakhand | Grade: Moderate | Max Altitude: 14700 ft | Duration: 07 days (Dehradun to Dehradun) | Age grp: above 13 yrs only

KUARI PASS & PANGARCHULLA PEAK

Kuari Pass is a very popular and Easy to Moderate level trek. It is also known as Curzon's trail since the British viceroy, Georg Curzon attempted crossing it and loved exploring this area. Though the pass is not very high it offers excellent views of Nanda Devi, Dunagiri and other Himalayan peaks. The Nanda Devi national park and the Rishi Ganga gorge are visible from the first day itself. While you camp on the lush green, infinitely unfolding meadow of the Gorsons, which can turn white anytime of the year, and as you move your head around, your eyes are gifted with grand views of 4 peaks of Chaukhamba, Neelkanth, Mana, Kamet, Hathi, Ghodi, Trishul, Nandaghunti, Nanda Devi, Dunagiri etc.

Dayara Bugyal

Region: Uttarakhand | Grade: Easy to Moderate | Duration: 06 Days (Dehradun to Dehradun) | Age grp: above 13yrs only

ITINERARY

Day 01: Dehradun – Barsu – Drive 182 km

We drive through the towns of Chamba, Uttarkashi, Bhatwari to reach Barsu. The final 30km is an uphill drive. Barsu is a quaint little village with a reservoir and a GMVN guesthouse. This village is a birder's paradise with many ground birds easily sighted. It is very easy to spot a black eagle on this trek.

Day 02: Trek Starts: Barsu to Barnala Tal (2200m) – 5km/2-3h trek

We pitch tents 5km above Barsu village near Barnala Tal and spent the night beside a bonfire with hot dinner. There is a vast meadow at Barnala and one can enjoy the views of Himalayan peaks as well.

Day 03: Barnala Tal to Dayara Bugyal (2.5km – 2 h)

We start post breakfast. Once you clear the tree line the walk becomes very rewarding with unending views of the snow-clad peaks. We reach DayaraBugyal and pitch our tents. We spend the afternoon exploring the area and can hike up to Bakariya top for a panoramic view of the meadows.

Day 04: Dayara Bugyal rest and explore

We spend this day exploring the nearby GidaraBugyal, soaking in the beauty of the lush meadows with a backdrop of Himalayan peaks. In the monsoon season, the meadows are full of flowers of various colors.

Day 05: Dayara Bugyal to Barsu (Trek Ends)

We trek downhill back to Barsu and rest for the night in a guest house.

Day 06: Barsu to Dehradun drive

Bali Pass / Yamunotri Pass

Region: Garhwal, Uttarakhand | Grade: Difficult | Max. Altitude: 15900 ft | Age Group: above 18 Yrs

Duration: 9 Days | 8 Nights | Trekking Days: 7 Days

This pass was an old trekking route from the Tons river valley to the Yamuna river valley. It continues to attract trekkers during the monsoon season when the snow melts and the pass is approachable from both sides. The pass is more approachable from the Har-ki-dun valley as the gradient is less and gives a good time for the trekkers to acclimatize to the altitude. The trek starts from Sankri and passes through the GovindPashu National Park, which is famous for its wildflowers. It also gives you an opportunity to visit the sacred lake of Ruinsara on the way and to explore the less-traveled path over Yamunotri pass to Yamunotri temple. The meadows near the lake are an ideal place to rest and explore the nearby peaks and passes.

Another highlight of this trek is that it gives you the experience of camping above 4000m. The area is surrounded by the Banderpoonch range and some of the famous peaks are Kalanag, Banderpoonch west and Ruinsara. This region was made popular by Jack Gibson, a teacher at the Doon school in the late 1940's. The surrounding peaks and glaciers in the Swargarohini Range and Banderpoonch range are a mountaineer's delight.

Itinerary

Day 01 : DEHRADOON to SANKRI (1920m) – 210 km (7hrs)

The drive from Dehradun to Sankri passes through the town of mussoorie and the villages of nainbagh, damta, naugaon, purola, mori and netwar. We enter the forest (Govind National Park) after Netwar and the final 20km are through the forest. The drive to Sankri is very beautiful, past pine and deodar forest. Overnight in camp along side the river in Sankri.

Day 02 : Trek Starts: SANKRI (1920m) to SEEMA (2560m) via TALUKA (1800m) – 12km (4hrs)

There is a motorable road connecting Sankri to taluka, but the walk through the forest is also delightful. However the path is a bit tricky and you may face blocks. Taluka is a small village with some shops, dhabas and a GMVN hotel. We cross taluka and continue along the true left of the river. It is a lovely walk along the true left of the river, passing through forests, apple orchards and fields. There are many small tea shops on the way. The town of Seema has many dhabas and a GMVN hotel. We camp alongside the river or on the open grounds near the village.

Day 03 : SEEMA (2560m) TO ROILTIA or WATERFALL-CAMP(2900m) – 4 km (4hrs)

Continue along the true right of the valley along the tons river. The trail ascends through the fields and climbs high above the confluence of the tons and Ruinsara gad. After crossing the meadow of DevsuBugyal we reach roiltia. With the village of Osla&Puoni in front and the waterfall nearby this is a perfect place to camp at night.

Day 04 : ROILTIA TO RUINSARA LAKE (3350m) – 9km (5hrs)

We ascend into the Ruinsara valley. There is a stark difference in the vegetation with pine and fir giving way to birch and rhododendron. Ruinsara is a lovely lake surrounded by meadows and rhododendron bushes. It is considered sacred by the locals. The walk through the forests is beautiful, with Kalanag (6387) visible straight ahead in the valley. Overnight in camps near the lake.

Day 05 : REST DAY AT RUINSARA

Today we rest near the lake and spent the day exploring the nearby glaciers and valleys. This will help us to acclimatize before the next day's climb to the pass. We reach kyarkoti which is the base camp for black peak (kalanag) and dumdarkandi pass. By evening we are back at the camp.

Day 06 : RUINSARA LAKE TO GODARI (4100m) – 4km (5hrs)

We start the day early so as to reach before afternoon. We camp below the pass along the glacial moraine. This is the one of the best locations for a camp with the valley below and the pass behind you. Camping at this altitude is a new experience which very few treks offer.

Day 07 : GODARI (4100m) TO UPPER DHAMNI (4000m) VIA BALI PASS (4850m) – 15km (7hrs)

We start very early today. The trail heads down south, over the ridge. It is a fairly short but steep climb up to the Bali pass on the southern ridge. A lot of glacial scree will be encountered here. We reach the top of the pass by 8am. You get a gorgeous view of various peaks from here especially of the Panchachuli peaks on a clear day. From the pass, we descend down into the alpine zone and reach the camping grounds of upper dhamni. This place has water nearby.

Day 08 : UPPER DHAMNI (4000m) TO YAMUNOTRI TO JankiChatti (2400m) Trek Ends

We descend to the forested trail leading to Yamunotri. After a quick visit to the famous shrine of Yamunotri, we make our way down the conventional pilgrim trail to Hanuman Chatti. Overnight in guesthouses in Yamunotri or in Hanuman Chatti/JankiChatti .

Day 09 : JANKI CHATTI TO DEHRADOON 180km Drive (7hrs)

Best Season: May-June, Sept-Oct

Roopkund

Region: Garhwal, Uttarakhand | Grade: Moderate to Difficult |
Altitude: 16,000 Ft approx | Age grp: Above 18 yrs

Roopkund (locally known as Mystery Lake) is a high altitude glacial lake in the Uttarakhand state of India. It lies in the lap of Trishul massif and is famous for the hundreds of human skeletons found at the edge of the lake. The area is uninhabited, located in the Himalayas at an altitude of 5,029 meters

(16,499 feet). Surrounded by rock-strewn glaciers and snow-clad mountains, the lake is a popular trekking destination.

A shallow lake, having a depth of about two meters, Roopkund has attracted attention because of the human skeletal remains that are visible at its bottom when the snow melts.[3] Many theories and opinions exist, from purely spiritual to scientific ones, attempting to explain the existence of these skeletons, which date back to 9th century CE. Because of the human remains, the lake has been called Skeleton

The fauna spotted from the Himalayan Brown bear to the elusive Musk Deer. This area is rich in birds includes Nervous Snow Cock and the Monal Pheasant. Each day presents different and startlingly beautiful landscapes all lavishly decorated. A trek that leaves one wondering at the awesome beauty of the Himalayas.

ITINERARY

Day 01: Arrival at Solang valley, Manali and small trek to Shivling after lunch

Day 02: (Trek Starts)

Solang – Old Manali (transport) and trek to Lamadugh (4/5 hrs)

The first day of the trek leads through cool forests of giant Deodar (Cedar), Alder and Oak. The trail ascends gently at first, through the Manalsu valley along Manalsu stream. Extensive views of the Kullu valley appear and slowly fade into the distance as we reach the first campsite in the lush green meadows of Lamadugh. Beautiful views of the surrounding peaks dominate the scene. As one gains height in this steep climb the distinct views of different faces of Indrasan, DeoTibba and peaks of Bara Shigri glacier open up.

Day 03: Lamadugh to KhenpriRuar (3/4 Hrs)

Early in the morning after breakfast, we leave for our next camp with packed lunch. Now the trail ascends steeply through woodland and meadows with wild alpine flowers strewn all around. On the way, brilliant shrubs of rhododendron and birch pave the way to the ridge after which you get to the campsite. Have our lunch and we go on a short exploration trip around our campsite. Overnight at camp in KhenpriRuar (3658 meters).

Day 04: KhenpriRuar – KhenpriTibba- Rani Sui Lake (4025M) – Riyali- 5/6 hrs.

Today our trek takes us to the highest point & also to one of the highlights of the trek “KhenpriTibba” (4025 meters) surrounded by good views of Indrasan (6221m), DeoTibba (6001m), Hanuman Tibba (5928m). Then we descend to Rani Sue Lake. This is one of the sacred lakes & this is the place where one can have a 360-degree view of the Himalayan ranges.

Day 05: Riyali / Base Of Kalihani Pass / Riyali (3550M) 5/6 HRS

This will be a gradual walk over the meadow. One has to cross the one river twice to get the base of kalihani pass.

Day 06: Riyali / Pangan Village & drive to SOLANG

This day you will descend down to the village through the pine forest and experience the Himalayan village lifestyle and culture.(Trek Ends)
